This report contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements. These statements include descriptions of current intentions, beliefs, or expectations. Forward-looking statements inherently involve risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and actual results may differ from those contained in the forward-looking statements due to various factors and assumptions. By their nature, forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties, and it is possible that predictions, forecasts, projections, and other forward-looking statements may not come to fruition.

Investors are cautioned that several factors could cause actual results to differ significantly from the plans, objectives, expectations, estimates, and intentions expressed or implied in forward-looking statements. If one or more of the risks or uncertainties described above materialize, or if the assumptions underlying the forward-looking statements prove incorrect, actual results could differ materially and adversely from the anticipated, expected, estimated, forecasted, or desired outcomes.

Given these risks, uncertainties, and assumptions, there is a possibility that the events described in the forward-looking statements included in this presentation may not occur. Forward-looking statements are only valid as of the date of this presentation, and we do not assume any obligation to update them in light of new information or events. Furthermore, additional factors that may impact our operations may arise from time to time, and it is impossible to predict all such factors, evaluate their potential effects on our operations, or determine the extent to which a specific factor or set of factors might cause actual results to differ materially and adversely from those expressed in the forward-looking statements.

We cannot guarantee that we will meet the plans, intentions, or expectations expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements contained in this presentation. Additionally, investors should not interpret statements regarding past trends or activities as guarantees that such trends or activities will continue in the future. All forward-looking statements—whether oral, written, or electronic—attributable to us or our representatives are expressly subject to the disclaimers described above. Neither Fortem Capital nor its subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, or representatives are obligated to amend forward-looking statements to reflect future events or circumstances.

Recipients of this presentation are advised not to base any decision on the forward-looking statements contained herein.
